

The 13th Asian Postgraduate Course on Victimology and Victim Assistance

The National Law University, Delhi (NLU) Under the auspices of K. L. Arora Chair in Criminal Law, the Tokiwa International Victimology Institute (TIVI) and the World Society of Victimology (WSV) will organize the 13th Asian Postgraduate Course on Victimology and Victim Assistance.

Dates: 5-16, August 2013

Venue: National Law University, Delhi, Sector-14, Dwarka, New Delhi – 110 078, India.

This informative and exciting course provides an opportunity for postgraduates and professionals to learn about Victimology and Victim Assistance in a compact two weeks course from renowned international victimologists and victim assistance experts. Previously, eleven courses were held in Mito, Japan and one course at Jakarta, Indonesia. In the past courses we had students from Australia, Bangladesh, Cambodia, China, Germany, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Italy, Japan, Malaysia, Nepal, New Zealand, Philippines, South Africa, South Korea, Sri Lanka, Taiwan, Tanzania, Thailand, USA and Vietnam. We are looking forward to hosting a maximum of 45 participants who will take advantage of this unique opportunity and learn from international experts from India and abroad.

Patron

Ranbir Singh
(Professor & Vice Chancellor
National Law University, Delhi), India

Course Directors

Kumaravelu Chockalingam
(K.L. Arora Chair Professor in Criminal Law,
National Law University, Delhi) India

John P.J. Dussich
(Professor, California State University, Fresno &
Director, Tokiwa International Victimology Institute, Japan)
USA/Japan

Some Key Lecturers

Kieran G. Mundy
(Professor & Deputy Director, Tokiwa International Victimology
Institute) Japan/Australia

Gerd F. Kirchhoff
(Professor, Tokiwa International Victimology Institute)
Japan/Germany

G.S. Bajpai
(Professor, National Law University, Delhi) India

Arvind Tiwari
(Professor & Chairperson, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai)
India

Murugesan Srinivasan
(Associate Professor, Department of Criminology, University of Madras, Chennai) India

Beulah Shekhar
(Associate Professor, Department of Criminology, M.S. University, Tirunelveli, Tamil Nadu) India

Some Key Lectures

History of Victimology, Victimological Theories, UN Declaration on Victims, Domestic Violence, Child Abuse, Elder Victims, Abuse of Power, Victims' Rights, Victims of Sexual Assault, Crisis Intervention, Disaster Victims, Restorative Justice, Trauma & PTSD, Victim Recovery, Victim Service Organizations and Victimological Research.

How to Register

All applicants must register online at the NLU, Delhi website by April 30, 2013.
<http://www.nludelhi.ac.in>

Registration Fee*

- 1) Professionals (from India and abroad)
₹ 15,000/- (INR)
- 2) Full time students (students have to produce proof from their Dean / Head of the Department)
₹ 10,000/- (INR)

For Registration Form

Contact:

National Law University, Delhi
Sector-14, Dwarka, New Delhi – 110078, India.

Tel: +91 11 28034992, Fax: +91 11 28034254

Mob: +91 9560677814

Email: apgvindia@nludelhi.ac.in

For more detailed information,
Please access NLU, Delhi website

* Please note that all those who desire to participate should first submit the filled in Registration Form and send the same to apgvindia@nludelhi.ac.in by April 25, 2013. The payment of registration fees shall be made only after the acceptance of their candidature by NLU, Delhi.

Note: The Indian Society of Victimology (ISV) and NLU Delhi Under the auspices of K.L. Arora Chair in Criminal Law will be organizing the 4th International & 8th Biennial Conference on Victimology at NLU, Delhi campus from 17-19 August, 2013 succeeding the conclusion of the 13th Asian Postgraduate Course on Victimology. For details please visit www.nludelhi.ac.in