

INSTRUCTIONS FOR JOINING PANELS:

All attendees must register via the online platform, Pathable, here. Registration is free.

If you have already registered and need to log into the system, you may do so here.

Once you are logged into the system, you click either "See Schedule" at the center of the page or "Schedule" at the top of the page to search for events.

Using the search field (in gray) near the top right of the screen (under the blue page banner), type in the panel title and click the "GO" button.

If you click the  to the right of the event title, it will be added to your personal agenda, which is retrievable from the top left of the page (directly under the NGO CSW logo).

Tuesday, 16 March

10:00am – 12:00pm EST

Feminist Approaches to Justice: International Responses to Sexual Violence

Sponsored by the International Sociological Association; Co-sponsored by Criminologists Without Borders

Chair

Dr. Rosemary Barberet, UN Representative International Sociological Association & Criminologists Without Borders (USA); Professor, John Jay College of Criminal Justice (USA)

Introductory Comments, Sari Hanafi, President, International Sociological Association (ISA); Professor, American University of Beirut (LEBANON)

Panelists

1325's 20th Anniversary: Feminism Should Drive the WPS Agenda

Ambassador Anwarul K. Chowdhury, Former Under-Secretary-General and High Representative of the UN; Initiator of the conceptual breakthrough for UNSCR 1325 as the Security Council President in March 2000; Founder of the Global Movement for The Culture of Peace (GMCoP)

Important Efforts to Stop Sexual Violence in Sierra Leone

Dr. Mary Okumu, UN Women in Sierra Leone (retired) (SIERRA LEONE)

CEDAW and Gender-based Violence Against Women (GBVW)

Dr. Rhoda Reddock, CEDAW Committee Member; Emerita Professor, Gender, Social Change and Development, The University of the West Indies, St. Augustine Campus, Trinidad and Tobago; ISA Executive Committee Member and UN CEDAW Committee (2018-2022) (TRINIDAD & TOBAGO)

Women and Girls as Victims of Sexual Violence: Consequences and Community Perceptions

Passy Mubalama, Women's Rights Activist; Founder of AIDPROFEN in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and NGOCOSW 2020 Woman of Distinction Awardee (DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF THE CONGO)

Guaranteeing a Future for Girls Affected by Armed Conflict: Concerns Identified by the International Universities Network for Children in Armed Conflict (UNETCHAC)

Dr. Laura Guercio, Member of the Coordination Committee of UNETCHAC (ITALY); Professor, University of Perugia; Head of International Relations for the International Criminal Bar Association

Best Police Practices Around the Globe: Improving Responses to Sexual Violence.

Jasmine Hwang and Sebastián Galleguillos, John Jay College of Criminal Justice (USA)

Moderator, Dr. Jan Marie Fritz, International Sociological Association (ISA) Executive Committee Member; ISA Representative to the UN; Professor, University of Cincinnati (USA); Distinguished Visiting Professor, University of Johannesburg (SOUTH AFRICA); and Visiting Professor at Taylor's University (MALAYSIA)

Wednesday, 17 March

2:00 – 4:00pm EST

Feminist Approaches to Justice: Addressing Incarcerated and Reentering Women Worldwide

Sponsored by the World Society of Victimology

Chair

Dr. Dawn Beichner, UN Representative World Society of Victimology; Professor, Illinois State University (USA)

Introductory Comments, Dr. Claire M. Renzetti, Editor, Violence Against Women, Judi Conway Patton Endowed Chair for Studies of Violence Against Women; Professor and Chair of Sociology, University of Kentucky (USA)

Panelists

Bringing the “Invisible Population” to Light: Justice for Incarcerated and Formerly Incarcerated Women

Dr. Jennifer Cobbina, Associate Professor, Michigan State University (USA)

Feminist Approach to Addressing the Challenges Facing Incarcerated Women in Liberia

Atty. Mmonbeydo Nadine Joah, Executive Director/Legal Counsel, Organization for Women and Children (ORWOCH) (LIBERIA)

The Rampant Incarceration of Indigenous Women: The Aotearoa / New Zealand Experience

Prue Kapua, National President, Maori Women’s Welfare League; Trustee, Maori Women’s Development Inc. (NEW ZEALAND)

A Global View of Women, Prison, and Aftercare: Promising Practices

Dr. Dawn Beichner, UN Representative World Society of Victimology; Professor, Illinois State University (USA) and Dr. Otmar Hagemann, Professor, Fachhochschule Kiel (GERMANY)

Thursday, 18 March

11:00am – 1:00pm EST

International Approaches to Coordinating Community Responses: Violence Against Women

Sponsored by American Society of Criminology – Division of International Criminology

Chair

Dr. Sheetal Ranjan, Member American Society of Criminology - Division of International Criminology; Professor, William Paterson University (USA)

Introductory Comments, Dr. Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Chair, American Society of Criminology - Division of International Criminology; Professor, Michigan State University (USA) and Dr. Ineke Haen Marshall, Editor, International Criminology; Professor, Northeastern University (USA)

Panelists

Theoretical Framework for Coordinating Community Responses: Violence Against Women

Dr. Sheetal Ranjan, Member American Society of Criminology - Division of International Criminology; Professor, William Paterson University (USA)

The European Victims’ Rights Directive (2012/29/EU): Reflections on Article 26 Cooperation and Coordination of Services

Dr. Vasiliki Artinopoulou, Professor, Panteion University of Social and Political Sciences; Director of the ‘Restorative Justice and Mediation’ Lab; Director of the Institute on Crime and Criminal Justice, European Public Law Organization (GREECE)

Lessons From the Implementation of UN-Women’s Integrated Global Initiative on Safe Cities and Safe Public Spaces for Women and Girls

Laura Capobianco, Senior Policy Advisor, Safe Public Spaces, Ending Violence against Women (USA)

Engaging Men and Boys to Prevent Gender-Based Violence Through Community-Based Programs

Clara Alemann, Director of Programs, Promundo-US (USA)

Reflections After 30 Years: Successes, Challenges and New Directions in Efforts to Address Men’s Violence Against Women

Dean Peacock, Director, Confronting Militarized Masculinities, Women’s International League for Peace and Freedom (SOUTH AFRICA)